D E D I C A T I O N

WE, THE CLASS OF 1940, DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK TO YOU, OUR SPONSORS. DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS, YOU HAVE BEEN OUR CHIEFTAINS, GUIDING US IN OUR PLANS AND LEADING US FORWARD SO THAT WE MIGHT SUCCESSFULLY REACH THE TERMINATION OF OUR FIRST ADVENTURE INTO LIFE.

MESSAGE FROM MR. ENTERLINE

Now that you have come to the end of your public school career, it is easy to conclude that your tasks are ended. Still, with your maturity and judgment, you have already sensed the fact that the great school of out-of-doors is immediately demanding practical answers to many questions. Your answers will depend, in part, on your recognition of the problems, your understanding of them, and on the sincerity and the enthusiasm which you exercise in attacking them. And you may expect a reward, either material or spiritual which accompanies sincerity of effort and devotion to a cause. May your theme, "Indian Lore", help you to familiarize yourself quickly with the practical aspects of life.

Then too, may we remind you that your understanding and appreciation of life will be enriched by the worthy friendships you make. The pleasant or unpleasant associations you make will depend upon your tact, judgment, and self-control. Thus, you should be both a practical and a sociable person.

Your sponsors have had many delightful experiences in working with the class of 1940, and here is their wish. May every member of this great class be fortunate enough to find some worthy endeavor in life to which he can devote himself with such zest and zeal that it will bring him honor, a most satisfactory means of support, and promote good-will in the environment in which he moves.

MESSAGE FROM MR. HILLEGASS

Your slogan, "Life Begins With Forty" is quite appropriate. You stand at the beginning of a new decade. Despite the economic, social, and political troubles of the day, there is a very heavy demand for competent, dependable, and well-trained workers. Through the ages, the ability to think clearly has always been considered a desirable quality. The young man or woman, who has learned to think clearly and is equipped in character, in personality, in competence, and in skill, is not likely to wait long to "Begin Life with '40."

May I extend my sincere wishes to each one of you, and hope you will live a full life so that your reward may be a life full of real happiness.

MESSAGE FROM MISS HICKS

With what ideals and ideas do you face the future, O Class of 1940, here and everywhere? What do you consider the most important in life, what really matters most to you? Upon your answer depends the character of our world of tomorrow. May you have the courage to aim at the highest for yourself and your fellowmen.

THEME EXPLANATION

SINCE THE VERY FIRST EXPLORER SET FOOT ON THIS CONTINENT, THE INDIAN, HIS LIFE, HABITS, RELIGION, AND CEREMONIES HAVE PROVED A SUBJECT ABOUT WHICH MEN HAVE SPECULATED, STUDIED, AND WRITTEN. BECAUSE OF THIS INTENSE INTEREST, THE INDIAN MOTIF HAS BEEN CHOSEN FOR OUR YEARBOOK; AND, BECAUSE THIS YEAR EVERYTHING ABOUT OUR GRADUATION PROGRAM IS TRULY AMERICAN, WE COULD NOT COMPLETE OUR PROGRAM WITHOUT GIVING THE AMERICAN INDIAN A PROMINENT PLACE IN THE ARRANGEMENTS. TRULY, WHO CAN MEASURE THE CONTRIBUTIONS THE AMERICAN INDIAN HAS MADE TO OUR HIGHLY SPECIALIZED MODERN SOCIETY AND WHO CAN JUDGE THE EFFECT WHICH HE HAS HAD UPON OUR CIVILIZATION?

SONG OF THE RACE

(Prima)

MANY PEOPLE HAVE GATHERED TOGETHER

I AM READY TO START IN THE RACE

AND THE SWALLOW WITH BEATEN WINGS

COOLS ME IN READINESS FOR THE WORD

FAR IN THE WEST STANDS THE BLACK MOUNTAIN

AROUND WHICH OUR RACERS RAN AT NOON

WHO IS THIS MAN RUNNING WITH ME,

THE SHADOW OF WHOSE HANDS I SEE?

(TRANSLATED BY FRANK RUSSELL)

The social started at 10:00 p.m. at the Big Chief Master's tepee, (Room 124). Jerry, Lucille, and I sat at the head of the table, and the other members of the club sat around them. They struggled with our Heap Big Seniors. Across from them sat Amelia and Florence, who were sitting at the head of the table. They were sitting at the head of the table with Jean, Lucy, Fred, Charles, and our two Virginias, squinting their very best as they tried to get a semblance of art from their well-known curliques. Farther down the table sat the other members of the club, some of whom were sitting at the head of the table. One person in the club told me that they were sitting at the head of the table. and Florence studying a calendar to discover when the next speaker appeared in the assembly tepee. Louise, Frank, and I sat at the head of the table, holding their hands by the fire as they waited for the next speaker to appear. Our editor, Carl, found himself a seat at the head of the table, and he could enjoy the head of the table. The next speaker appeared in the assembly tepee, and she wore herself to a frazzle.

Her first speech was a long one, and she was more than a talking head.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

WHEW!

WHEW!

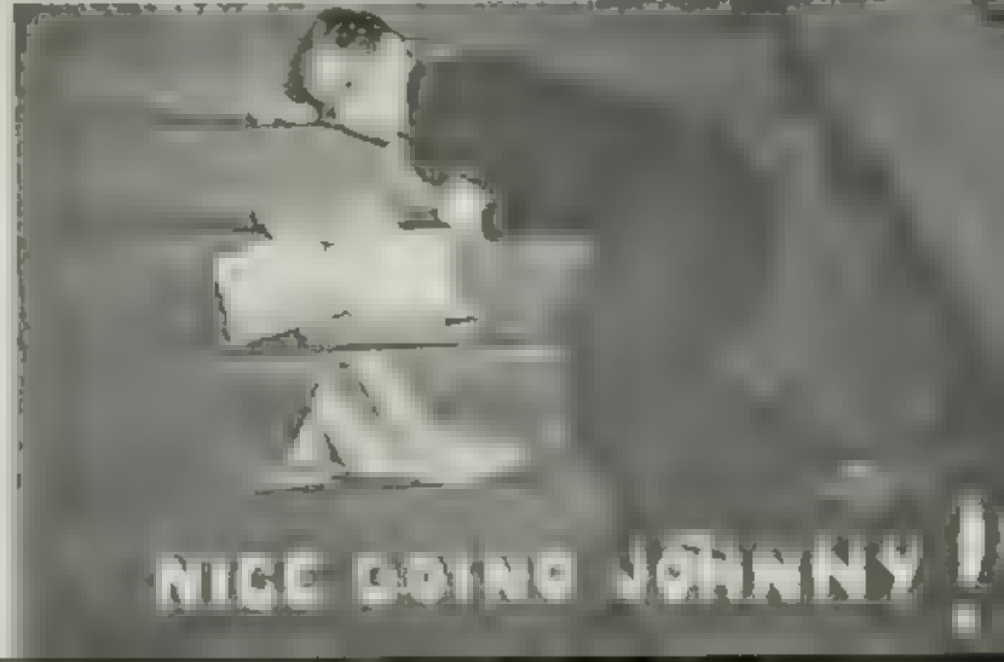

OH NO!

OH NO!

OH NO!

OH NO!

• MOMENTS of • TRIUMPH of

I. O. U.

Thrills! Shivers of excitement ran up and down our spines as the blood-curdling laugh of the villain rose from the stage where the class of 1940 presented its play entitled "I. O. U.", or "Who'll Pay the Rent?" The play, which was written by Marion Silverman, Joseph Boscov, and Morris Rosenthal, was presented in part as an old-fashioned melodrama.

The mustache-twirling villain, a certain Mr. Chiselwit (Albert Schucker) started the plot rolling by demanding the money for the mortgage he held on the old homestead, which in the meantime had been sold to a certain Captain Jeremiah Blake (Ben Varshene) nor his well-meaning but hot-tempered spouse (Betty Gilden) had any idea of where to raise the money. Their daughter Joan (Geraldine Catalano) planned to present a melodrama, the cast of which included Norma Troutman, Miriam Hinden, Reid Gromis, William Beck, and Louise Boyer. This melodrama was given in order to save the showboat. Joan promised that if the show was not successful she would never see her sweetheart, Lee Chiselwit (Claude Dundore), again. Lee went against his father's will to aid Joan with this show and was successful. The villain, Mr. Chiselwit, was defeated and the curtain rang down as the defeated Mr. Chiselwit stamped from the stage.

Splendid vocalizing by Geraldine Catalano and Claude Dundore provided still more thrills for the audience. The supporting cast, the singing choruses, and both the boys' and girls' dancing choruses coordinated beautifully to produce a well-rounded program.

Mr. Mohn was the capable director of the entire production while Arlene Kalbach and Robert Yost directed the dancing. Mr. Walker supervised the vocal music and Donald Moll and Joseph Boscov conducted the orchestra which was made up entirely of seniors.

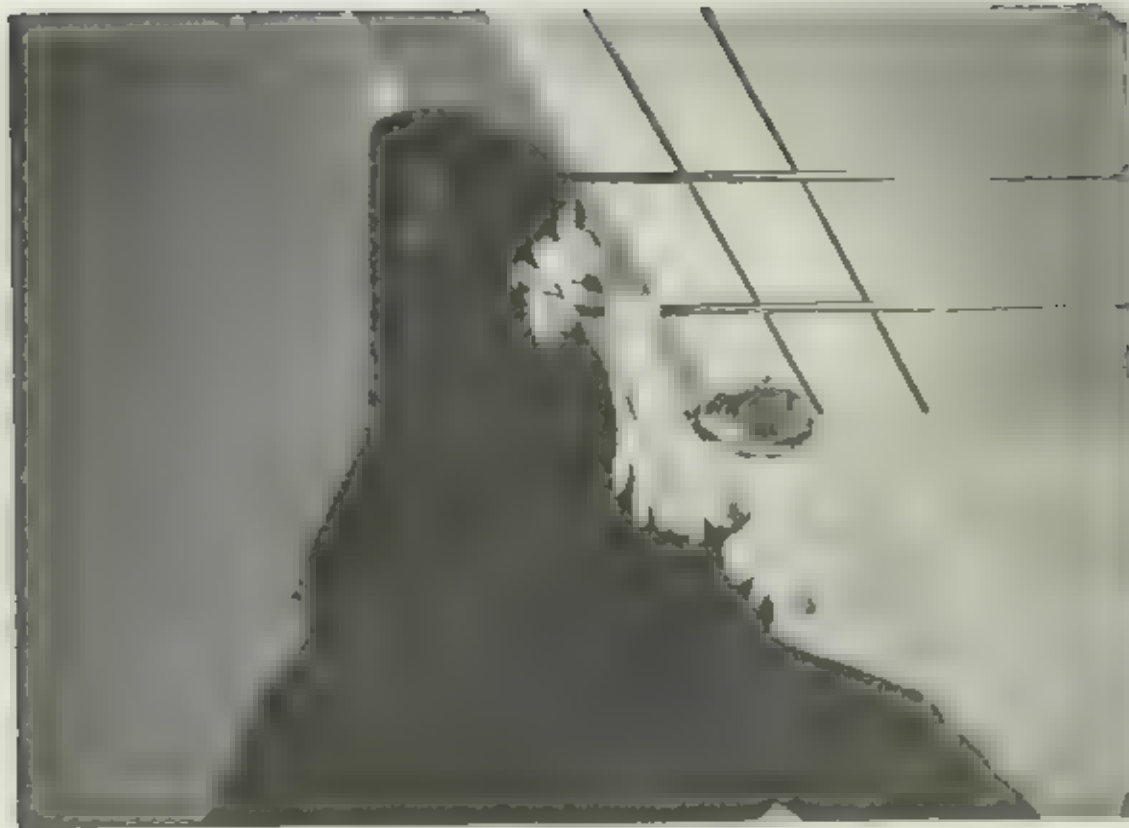

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

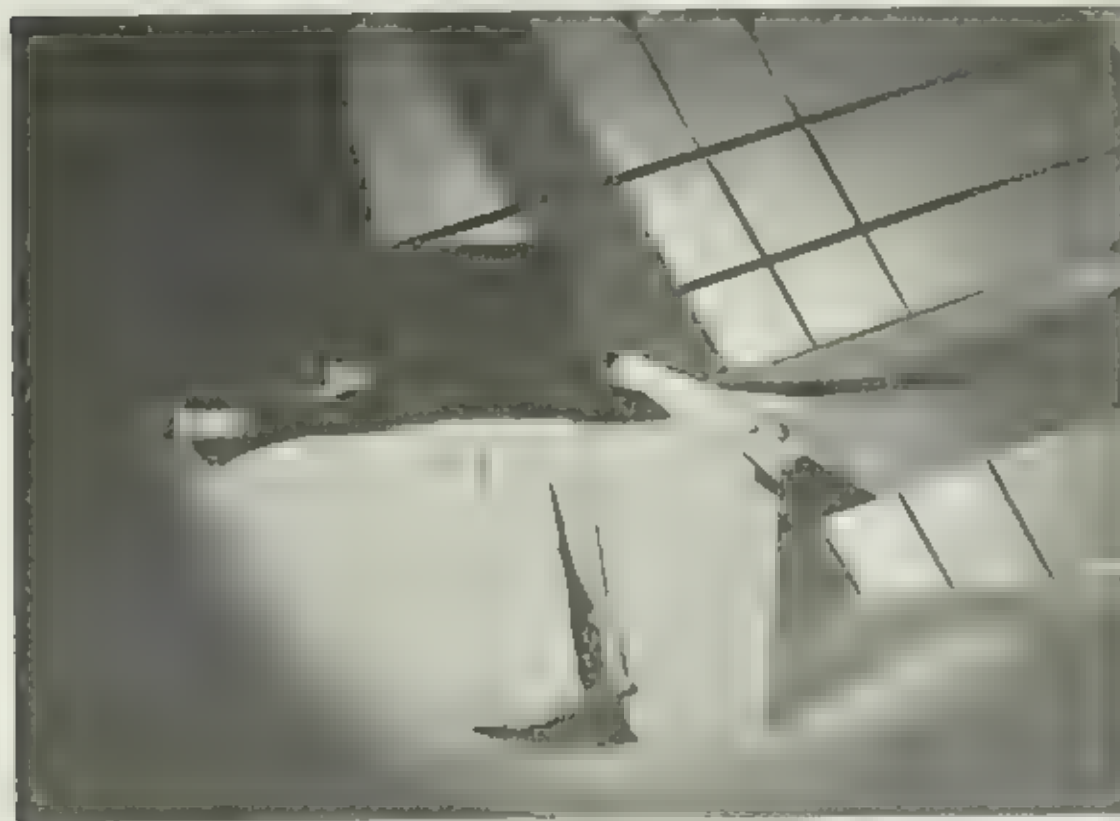

With a hubbub of excited chatter intermingled with an occasional yawn, our seniors boarded the train which would start them on the first lap of their class trip. Although it was only about six o'clock on the morning of June 1st, they all looked forward to the cruise around New York Harbor, then up the Hudson, and finally a stop off at West Point to see the cadets drill.

When they finally "invaded" the ship, they were pleasantly surprised by the size of it, for the boat was large enough to provide room for 3,000. The seniors quickly adapted themselves and besides dancing, chatting, and promenading, they fortified themselves for the afternoon with a hearty luncheon. One of the features of the cruise was the loud speaker which enabled all to hear the information which was imparted concerning the sights.

Finally, after a long but exciting day, several hundred weary seniors regretfully arrived home about 11:15. As the last ones stepped from the train, many just realized that the trip had concluded another chapter of memories connected with the Castle on the Hill.

SENIOR PROM

Music for the evening was provided by a band of smooth hitting music. The band was composed of students who had to make the ninety forty five minute mark.

The evening music was rendered by the High School Band.

In the evening the students were entertained by a variety of affairs with music and dancing.

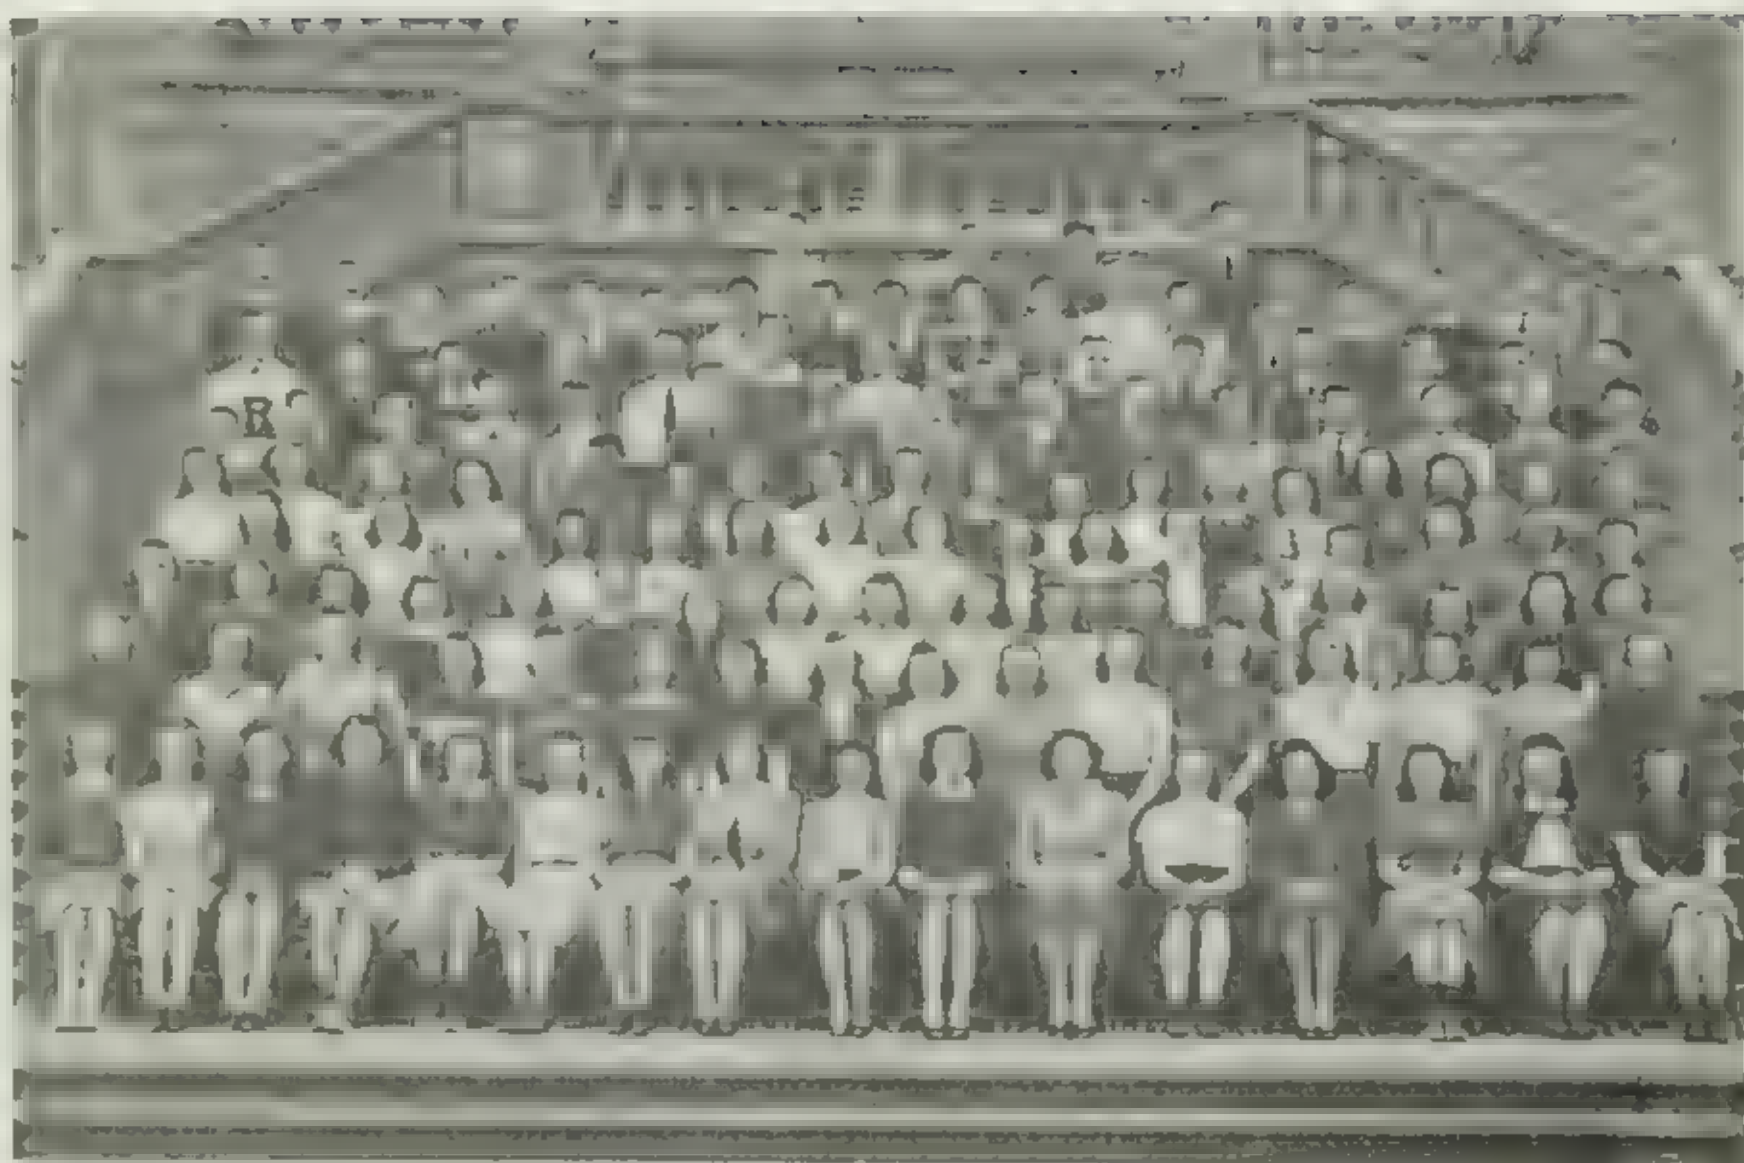

The evening was a very successful one for the seniors whose Life Begins With the Senior Prom.

ORGANIZATIONS

All the organizations of the Reading Senior High School involve some form of service as their objective. The student may contribute his services voluntarily or he may be appointed by the faculty or his classmates to fill certain positions.

Membership in these various organizations depends upon individual leadership, cooperation, character, and willingness to cultivate these qualities. By participating in special activities, the pupil learns not only good fellowship and leadership but also good "followship."

Of all the organizations of Reading Senior High School, the music department is one of the most "notable." It has obtained state-wide recognition for musical excellence.

The instrumentalist finds great pleasure in joining one of the orchestras or bands. The A Cappella choir, choruses, and glee clubs offer splendid opportunity for the vocalists.

The splendid spirit of these organizations is shown in the fine programs rendered in assemblies and in the annual evening performance. Wherever there is music, there is an atmosphere of gaiety. We hope the pleasant strains of these organizations will always pervade the Castle halls.

Among several forms of the extra-curricular activities is that of clubs. These clubs are open to all students who voice a desire to enter them. The meetings of the majority of the clubs are held every Tuesday during school hours, but there are a few which participate in activities after school time. Each is sponsored by some faculty member.

This type of organization provides an opportunity for participation in a wide range of hobbies and the development of a variety of interests to satisfy almost all the Senior High School students. Besides arts and dramatics, athletics, sciences, services, home economics, and many other diversions constitute this activity.

R. H. S. LOSES TO EASTON (12-0)

The Red Knights lost their third game to a strong Easton team, the score being 12 to Reid. Reid looked unimpressive against Easton who was able to win by a larger margin. R. H. S. led the strong Easton team to a complete tie during the first half. In the second half, when Easton was taken out of the game, Reid ran in a few points. The Rocket defense collapsed. It was at that time that Reid was completely overthrown and Easton again scored in the last frame on an intercepted pass.

Reid was completely defeated at Easton and the game is different now. It has been told.

KNIGHTS DEFEATED BY POTTSVILLE (26-7)

Reid's performance was not as good as before. Reid was completely defeated by the Red and High. Reid's team lost their fourth game of the season. Pottsville was the victor by a score of 26 to 7. Reid's lone touchdown came in the first quarter. In a pass to Drach. Pottsville scored seven points in the second quarter and nineteen in the last. It was just a situation of too much. Pottsville's Evans and England headed the team well until the last quarter when Pottsville went wild.

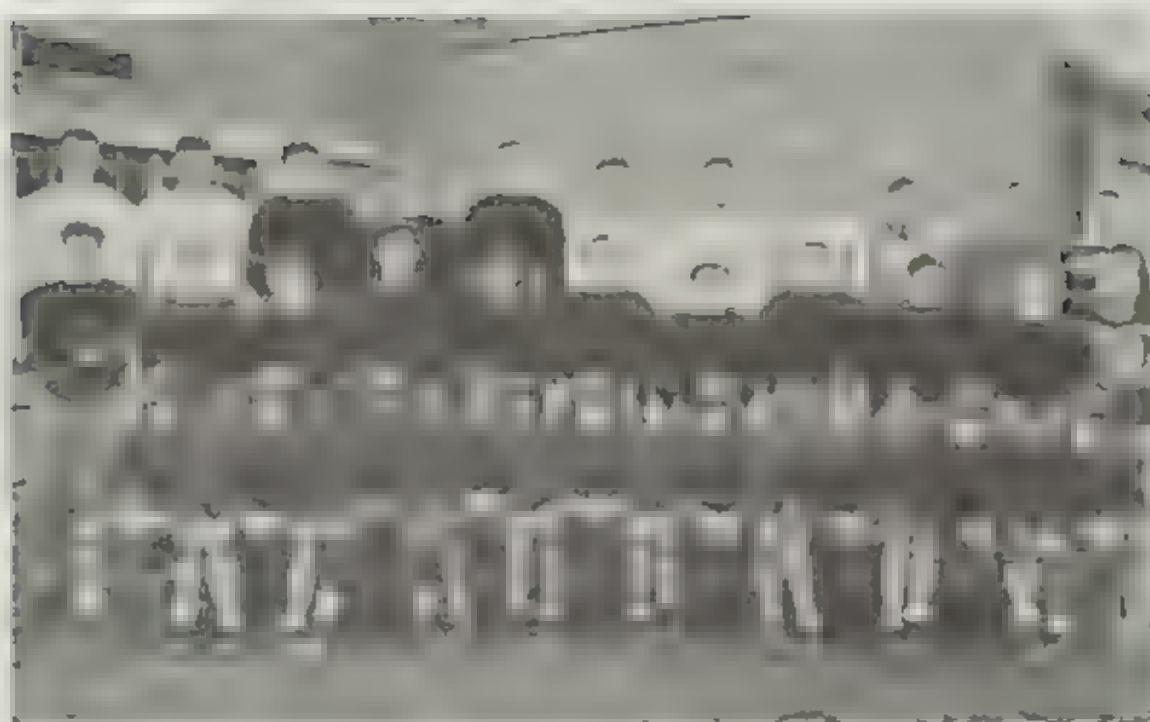

With fourteen seniors playing their last game, the Rockets completed a 555 season.

Reading High's J. V. Knights turned in a rather mediocre season. Handicapped by their lack of weight, the "Baby" Rockets posted only one win with two losses and two ties against heavier opponents. They defeated Shillington J. V., tied Lancaster J. V. and Lebanon J. V., and lost to Allentown J. V. twice. The gridgers, instructed by Coaches Harris and Horine, show great promise of becoming future grid luminaries.

Some outstanding stars of the season were Price, Sandman, Sauders, and Palafirro. They sparked the team on offense and defense.

The 1940 Reading High basketball team completed a good season under Coach Smith. The Red and Black quintet won twelve of nineteen encounters and placed second in the Central Pennsylvania League.

The Knights opened the season with a 42 to 20 win over Thomas Patton Trade. Captain Guldin was high scorer with 11 points. In the second game the Red Raiders suffered a 23 to 17 setback at the hands of Allentown. Guldin again led the scorers. Szajna and Lewis with 6 points each turned the Reading High quintet's third game into a 23-21 victory. The hapless victims were from Bethlehem High.

The Red and Black team opened the league with a victory over John Harris. Guensch burned up the basket with 12 points, while the rest of the team combined to score 44 points against John Harris 36. The Knights won their second league game in an overtime fracas with York. The score was 33-31 with Captain Guldin accounting for 10 of the local team's points. Lewis led the scoring as the Red Raiders won their third league encounter at the expense of William Penn. The final score was 38 to 23.

After winning three successive league games, Reading's opponent was Lebanon. The final score read 31-27. The Red and Black quintet came back to take the next game from Steelton 32-28. Massbach added the team with 16 points. Krawski and Szajna each tallied 6 points as the Knights lost a non-league fray to Norristown, 38 to 28.

Reading's home game against Lancaster was the most exciting game of the season. The game was won in the last minute on a canny throw by Lewis 23-22. Massbach ran up 21 points.

As the Knights win over Fanning High by the score 15 to 14. The Red Borders then win their third successive league game. This one was against York. Karpowicz brought up 13 points to aid the Reading High team in a 41 to 20 victory over York.

Karpowicz and G. and G. added 21 points to the Reading in defeating William Penn 36 to 32. The Red and Black quintet was sitting on top of the league when they invaded Lebanon only to drop a 32 to 22 verdict. With Muskrum and Scagn scoring 14 and 12 points respectively, the Red Knights got back in the win column by defeating Steelton 40 to 26.

At this point in the competition Reading took a turn for the worse. Three successive games and a chance to play off for the league championship were lost. The first of these defeats was at the hands of Bethlehem. The score was 31 to 23 with Muskrum leading the Red Knight scorers. The second game, an encounter with Lancaster, cost the Red Borders their tie for the first place. Scagn's 11 points aided the Red and Black team. The final score stood at 33 to 26 against them. The Red Knights then lost their retention entitlement with Allentown. The scores were on the all-around at 26 to 23 score. The last game of the season, with Pottsville, resulted in a win. Scagn scored 7 points, while the rest of the team helped to squeeze out a 25 to 23 win.

With the Pottsville game, the Fanning High team closed its 1933 season. Winning twelve of nineteen games, the Knights placed second in the Central Pennsylvania League. The varsity squad was composed of Hops G. and G., Myer Muskrum, John Scagn, Stanley Karpowicz, Russell Landon, Myer Lewis, and Dick G. and G. with Harrison Sharp and Hardy H. and G. taking in and a few other roles. Myer Muskrum placed fourth in the league scorers. The Red had played an average of better than 3. per game against 53.1 (an average of 28 points per game) for their opponents.

JAYVEE BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity team compiled a better record than the varsity this year. Winning seventeen contests and losing three to the Baby Raiders and the Bethlehem Varsity Basketball League. After completing the regular season in a tie for first place, the Reading High Jayvees won a playoff contest from Lebanon. The RHS Jayvees won their first thirteen games. They then dropped a game to Lebanon which tied them for first place. The Baby Raiders then exchanged wins and losses, winding up with the important tie-breaking playoff against Lebanon.

Some of the stellar stars of the season were Chet Stankiewicz, Jimmy Bunn, Bobby Harbach, Joe Szymanski, Bob Maysich. Next season, these players will probably carry the Red and Black varsity banner.

BASEBALL

With about half of last year's championship team left over and many enthusiastic rookies, Coaches Smith and Rock set about to produce a cooperative team which will gain new honors on the baseball diamond for Reading High.

In March, many ambitious pitchers and catchers began limbering up their arms in the gym. From this lot, the coaches obtained several promising hurlers. Lefty Angstadt, Bobby Erwin, and Johnny Roslin are sure starters. On the bases are Szajna on the hot corner. Kenny Lascomb completes the infield at shortstop. Patrolling the field are Joe Syzmanski in right, Jerky Kozlowski in center and Ernie Kauffman in left. Bruce Ohlinger keeps an eye on things from behind the plate.

To date three games have been played and Reading High has emerged victorious in all three. These events indicate a successful season ahead.

TRACK

The 1940 Reading High track team, coached by Mr. Jacobs and Mr. Boyles, was to open its season on Saturday, April 27 at the annual Penn Relays in Philadelphia. The relay team composed of Dick Swope, Ollie Eyrich, Johnny Yocum, Tulio Giordano, and Bill Willis was disqualified for getting on the track late.

Prospects for the 1940 track season looked good as about seventy hopefuls limbered up at George Field in preparation for the first meet with Hill School at Pottstown on May 2. The Red and Black squad faced a schedule similar to last year's campaign, engaging in eight meets climaxed by the annual Memorial Day Meet at George Field.

Outstanding candidates for the meet events were Gere Mendelsohn and Chicks Brenner. Stan Askey shone in broad-jumping and Dick Swope looked good as a pole vaulter. On the whole the squad shaped up well.

This is the fourth consecutive trophy that the team has won. Losing only one contest while winning six, the hill and dalers compiled a winning percentage of .857. Some outstanding stars of the season were Markley, Yocum, Smith, Troxelle, and Vogel.

The lone setback was at the hands of Lansford by the score of 23 to 32.

Coach Boyles and Coach Jacobs are to be congratulated on turning out another winning squad.

The team then defeated Wyomissing. In the next two games, Reading beat Lancaster and Mohnton. The Red Knights next lost to a strong Girard team, and finished the season with a win against Lancaster.

After Reading High had gone four years without a swimming team, we finally got back into competition this year. The team had a fair record, losing four meets, winning one, and placing third in another. While defeating Pottstown and placing third in the District 3 P. I. A. A. meet, the Raiders lost to Allentown twice, Lancaster, and Pottstown. The Red Knights' failure to capture a single first in diving and few first places in the relays caused most of the defeats. The losses may also be explained by the fact that this is the first year of competition for the Reading High performers.

Some of the outstanding swimmers were Bauman, Smythe, Bott, Moll, and Stewart. Coach Davis is to be congratulated on turning out as fine a team as he did.

GOLF

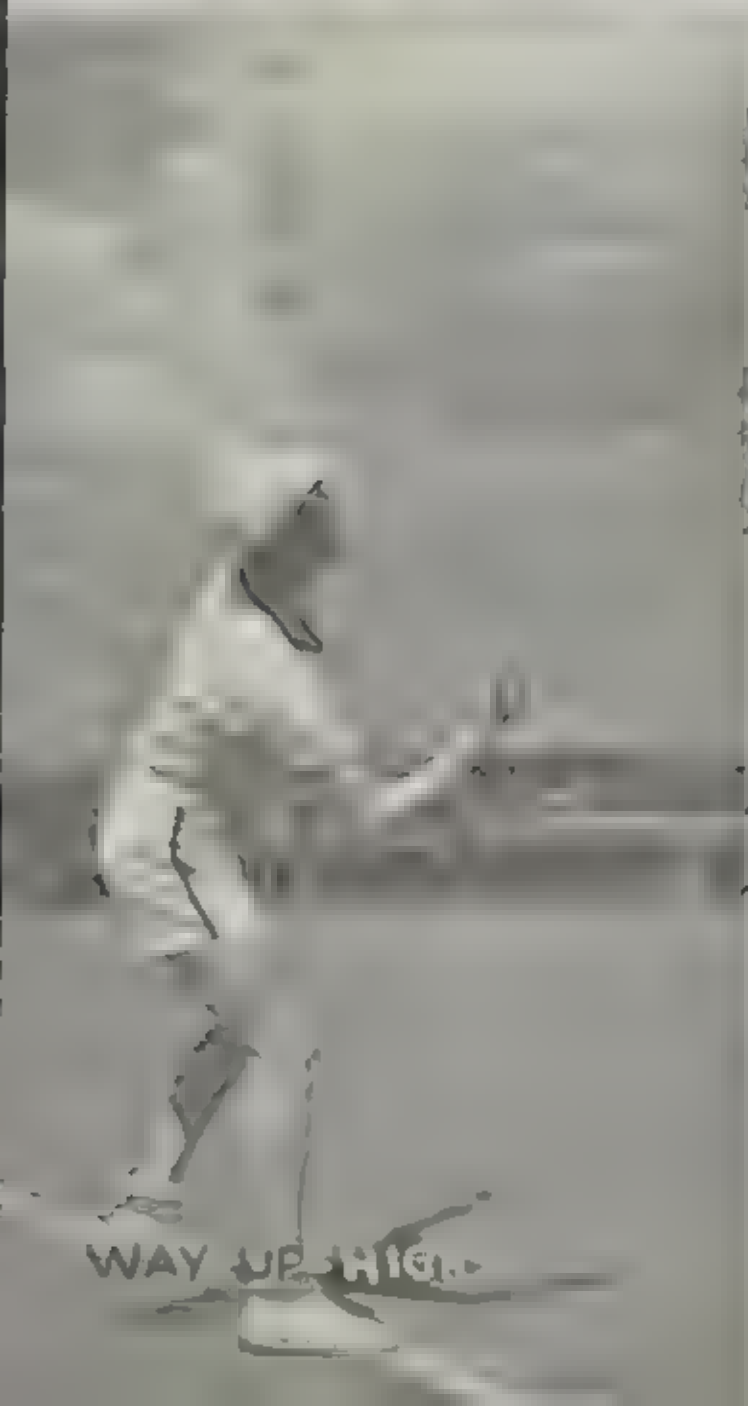

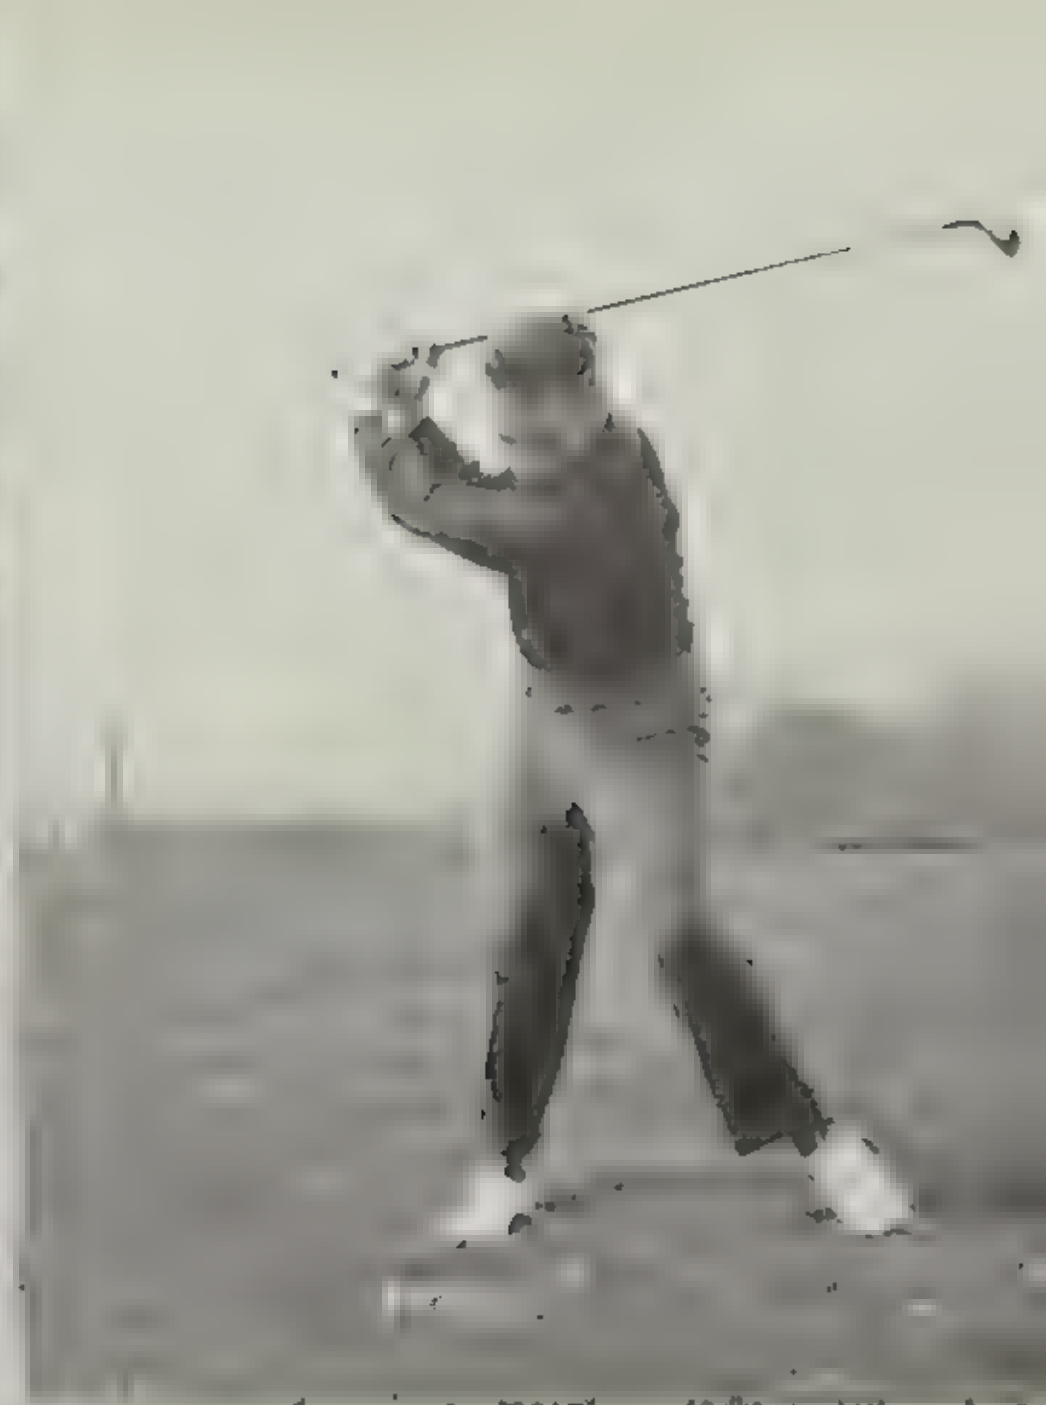

After several weeks of intensive practice, the Reading High golf team opened their season on April 24 against F. and M. Academy at Lancaster. Reading's first match against Kutztown was rained out.

At the present time, the R. H. S. varsity golf squad led by Johnny Markel is composed of Markel, Franco, Reber, Alexander, Yocum, Dietrich, Krug, and Fascone. Coach Brucher feels that this team will bring back golf honors to Reading High.

The squad at present is composed entirely of tenth and eleventh grade students. This gives prospect of a great team next year. The number one man on the team, Johnny Markel, is the State P. I. A. A. champion and is, therefore, especially qualified to lead the Reading High team.

SWIMMING

Splash! Splash! This familiar sound was heard every Thursday afternoon at 4:15 at the Y. W. C. A. The reason was that Miss Wadsworth was instructing the aquatic-minded girls of Reading High in the art of swimming. The group composed of fifty girls.

The mermaids were divided into three groups according to ability: beginners, intermediates, and advanced. Special achievement tests for each group were given at the end of six lessons. The beginners' test included floating on face for ten seconds, floating on back for one minute, changing body position—back and front, swimming twenty yards in good form, and performing a plain dive from side of pool -then swimming to the other side.

To pass the intermediate test, the girls had to swim the crawl in good form for twenty yards; swim backstroke in good form for twenty yards; perform plain front or racing dive; dive in swim, float, and tread water without touching a support; and administer artificial respiration for three minutes.

The advanced group had more difficult tests to pass. They had to swim the crawl for eighty yards; swim racing backstrokes in good form; perform a plain front and an optional dive; dive from the surface recovering an object three times, carry a tired swimmer thirty feet preceded by a thirty-foot swim; float, tread or swim for ten minutes without touching a support; and administer artificial respiration for three minutes.

Unlike the previous year, the girls enjoyed two Play Days. The first in December, the second in March. A varied sport program including a balloon game, Chinese tag, call ball, a cork race and plunge was featured. At the conclusion of this enjoyable program, the members participated in a plunge period.

TENNIS

Because of unfavorable weather conditions, the tennis enthusiasts were delayed in starting their chosen activity.

The tennis boys were all beginners, but they were interested and determined. The beginners were given a brief instruction in the fundamentals of the game and then they were allowed to play on the court. The boys who had previous experience in the game received coaching for improving their technique.

BOWLING

Bowling is the newest and most popular sport introduced at Rockaway Junior High School this year. The first meeting was held on the first night of the Bowling Club at which time they enjoyed their bowling.

When I first came to this school, I found the students very intelligent and the teachers very capable. The school was in a very good state of affairs. I have been very fortunate in my work here. I have been able to do a great deal of good for the students and the school. I have been able to make the school a better place for the students to learn and for the teachers to teach. I have been able to make the school a better place for the community. I have been able to make the school a better place for the world.

V. P. WILLIAM L. FINK

Our boat puts in at Ketchikan, Alaska Here, we shall see the fisher Indians of the great Northwest

On the wharf, sits an old squaw offering for sale attractive baskets woven from spruce roots and colored with natural dyes The Indians of the northland have acquired the art of fashioning things of beauty from materials meager and unprepossessing

High on a hill, stands the Indian School where a weathered old brave explains to us the significance of the totem. An Indian family displays before its dwelling a totem pole or a family crest. A native wanderer in the Indian country finds open-handed hospitality in a home that displays his totem. He is no longer a stranger but kin

When an Alaskan leaves his native country, his friends say that he is going "outside." The time has come when you, the members of the Class of 1940, are leaving Arxalma. As you depart we hope that, like the Indians of the Great Country, you have developed power to transform the commonplace into the beautiful and profitable; that you cherish the high idealism of man's humanity to man. Bon V

MR. SANDT'S DEDICATION

On June 21, 1940 after 30 years of faithful service in the Reading School District, Mr. John E. Sandt, teacher of mathematics, will be retired. Mr. Sandt received his diploma from Kutztown State Normal School and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Muhlenberg College. He also attended Harvard and Columbia University. Mr. Sandt first came to Reading in 1910 at which time he became a member of the faculty of the Boys' High School. In 1927, upon completion of the new building, he came to Senior High School where he has been a loyal worker ever since. His activity included not only his teaching as he was a football manager at the Boys' High School for eight years and he has been official at track meets ever since his first year in Reading. The students and faculty of Reading Senior High School appreciate Mr. Sandt's loyalty and faithfulness and wish him much happiness in the future.
